

ANDREW M
YANG

Partner

Corporate Practice

MinterEllison LLP

We are pleased to announce that Andrew M Yang has joined MinterEllison LLP on 4 May 2022.

Andrew has developed a broad corporate and finance practice with specialist knowledge in venture capital, private equity and M&A. He brings with him extensive experience working in the region including, Singapore, Indonesia, Vietnam, the Philippines, Mongolia, Hong Kong and China. His practice will bring valuable opportunities in the rapidly growing technology and innovation space. He will also bring many years of experience in equity and debt capital markets as well as work with listed companies, having trained and been partner in the Hong Kong offices of several US and UK based international law firms. We trust that Andrew and his team will expand our corporate offering to our clients.

Quote from Andrew: "I am delighted to be bringing my corporate and finance practice to MinterEllison in Hong Kong. With its very broad set of expertise in the local markets, MinterEllison provides a tremendous platform upon which I am certain my clients and I will continue to build on the depth and breadth of our relationships. Equally, I look to support the practices of the MinterEllison partners both locally and internationally."

MinterEllison LLP
銘德有限法律責任合夥律師事務所